Table 4: Summary of 12 'Case Study' Young Participants' Perceived Situations Before the Stoneleigh Project

Participant	Social network category.	Social capital prior to Stoneleigh Project: family, education and social networks.	Perceived identity at start of Stoneleigh Project.
Ben (M)	Fluid	Previously a young person and then a volunteer with a Stoneleigh Group partner.	Recently appointed as full time youth worker.
Brad (M)	Chaotic	Intermittent family support. Truanting from school. Intermittent social networks including adult contact.	Gang member. Nature boy.
Clive (M)	Fluid	Family support. Good educational outcomes. Good social networks including adults.	Graduate.
Gordon (M)	Previously strong within sub-culture. Chaotic outside. Then weak/fluid	No family links. Poor educational results. No social networks outside of sub-culture. Deserted sub-culture to join Camas community.	Gay. Lap dancer. Partner. Community member.
Justin (M)	Weak	Largely unknown.	Truant. Unemployed. Drug user.
Mac (M)	Fluid	Largely unknown.	Volunteer youth leader.
Martin (M)	Weak	Not in touch with family. In sheltered housing. No qualifications or work. Suffers from depression.	Homeless and unemployed.
Paul (M)	Weak	Largely unknown but no educational outcomes.	Truant. Unemployed.
Rose (F)	Weak	Restrictive family support. Moderate educational outcomes. Good social networks including adults.	Unemployed. Volunteer youth leader.
Sarah (F)	Strong	Family support. Reasonable school results. Good social networks including adults.	Daughter, student, aspiring to join police service.
Steve (M)	Weak	Weak family support. Good school results. Poor social networks.	Truant. Volunteer youth leader. Casual worker.
Trevor (M)	Fluid	No family links. No educational results. Good social networks including adults.	Truant. Unemployed.